

Join Together To Support Affordable Homes!

Join Habitat for Humanity affiliates and housing leaders throughout New York State in calling for a true New York State Housing Trust Fund

When:

Wednesday, May 30, 2007
10 am

Where:

Legislative Office Building
Hearing Room A
Albany, NY

What:

State Senate Public Forum on creating a true New York State Housing Trust Fund

A true housing trust fund features a dedicated revenue stream for creating and preserving affordable housing. Over the last two years, Habitat-NYC has joined with housing advocates across New York State to fight for a statewide trust fund. We are closer than ever to that goal, and with a strong push, we can help get affordable homes built and preserved for hardworking New Yorkers everywhere.

On May 30, join housing leaders throughout the state as we call for a true New York State Trust Fund!
